Terms and Conditions of Booking

- Deposits are non-refundable but may, at the discretion of the company directors, be transferable to another date or product.
- If Get West has to cancel a booking for any reason the participants will be given as much notice as is possible and will be offered the choice of a full refund or a change of dates.
- Participants of activities/courses/events booked with Get West will be expected to abide by all health and safety regulations and instructions as outlined by Get West staff at all times. Failure to do so will mean immediate removal from the course/activity/event.
- Get West has full public liability insurance cover for all activities/courses/events provided by the company, details of which are available on request.
- Personal insurance against injury, accident or loss while participating in Get West activities/courses/events is the responsibility of the client.
- Get West will accept no responsibility for the personal property of clients of Get West.
- We emphasise that some of the events you may book are by their nature inherently dangerous and there are certain risks involved and by participating in these you acknowledge and assume the inherent risks.
- The use of alcohol or drugs or being under the influence of alcohol or drugs whilst participating in such events is strictly forbidden.
- A minimum number of bookings is required for each course to run.
- Please note it is your responsibility to show that all reasonable skill and care has not been demonstrated by us if you wish to make a claim against us.
- Clients with special medical conditions should also check that their GP considers them safe to book an activity of interest and advise us of any such condition when booking. Necessary medication should be brought with you and participants must be in good health prior to taking part.
- Participants images and videos may be used for Get West promotional purposes.

Failure to comply with above clauses will negate your rights to instigate a course of action or follow on proceedings against us. All reasonable care will be taken by us.

Weather conditions

As you will appreciate; we have no control over the weather. The provision of favourable weather to allow you to take part in your chosen activities does not form part of our contractual obligations to you. There is always unfortunately the risk that Get West may have to cancel weather dependent activities due to adverse weather conditions. If this occurs, you will be entitled to change or cancel your arrangements without paying any extra charges.
